

8. Jesus Commanded Christians To Commemorate His Death (1 Cor 11:24-25), “This do in _____ of me.” We recommend you study TPBS Lessons #76---#77, The Lord’s Supper, and #252, FAQ: The Lord’s Supper. Some skip it because they have a headache, a house full of company, or for many mundane reasons. Is it easy for you to justify doing this? _____
9. The Command To Study It’s easy to say, “I’m too busy” or “I do read my Bible when I have time.” Reading is not necessarily study. The command: (2 Tim 2:15) “Study to show thyself _____ unto _____, a workman that needeth not _____, rightly dividing the _____ of _____.” Do you study your Bible as many hours a week as you watch TV or enjoy recreation? _____ Do you consider it a sin not to study? _____ God knows everything. Would he command study unless he knew for a fact that you have available time to do so? _____
10. Evangelize Do you recognize that every Christian, including you, is to evangelize? _____ (Prov 11:30) “He that winneth _____ is _____.” We are to follow the Apostle’s example and they, and early Christians, (Acts 8:4) “went every where _____ the _____.” Would you be a Christian if someone hadn’t taken time to encourage and teach you about Jesus? _____ Do you try to teach someone the gospel every week? _____ Do you initiate the subject or wait for them to bring it up? _____ (Mk 16:15) “Go into all the _____ and _____ the gospel to every creature.” Preaching simply means to advocate earnestly, to deliver.
11. Be Prayerful In the words of the familiar hymn, do you pray in the morning, the noontime, the evening, or any time? Does it take a calamity to activate you to pray? One of the graces of (Rom 12:12) is “continuing _____ in _____.” Prayer is talking to God. How often do you talk to God on an average day? _____ We recommend TPBS Lessons #16---#18, Prayer. See also TPBS #297, Therapeutic Nature Of Prayer. Do you take the command (1 Thess 5:17), “Pray without _____,” to be applicable or optional? _____
12. Let Your Speech Be With Grace The text is (Col 4:6). Let’s read it: “Let your speech be _____ with grace.” What word did you put in the blank? _____ Does this eliminate bad language, gossip, and falsehoods? _____ Do you assume that it’s less sinful to gossip than to commit adultery? _____ Is it? _____ Does God say that there are degrees of sin and that lying is only 30% as bad as getting drunk? _____ It is rank presumption to assign priorities to the commandments.
13. Be Benevolent This word means disposed to doing good. Selfish people aren’t very benevolent. (Rom 15:1) “We then that are _____ ought to bear the _____ of the weak and not to _____ ourselves.” (Phil 2:4) “Look not every man on his _____ things but---on the _____ of _____.” Do you rate this commandment with equal importance to others? _____
14. Be Introspective Please study TPBS Lesson #19, Introspection. This is self-inspection. (2 Cor 13:5) “_____ yourselves, _____ ye _____ the faith.” This infers the possibility of being separated from Christ while thinking oneself to be spiritually sound. “Prove your _____ selves.” Your primary responsibility is your own soul. Do you take this lightly? _____
15. The Company You Keep (1 Thess 5:22) “Abstain from all _____ of _____.” (2 Thess 3:6) “Now we _____ you, brethren---that ye _____ yourselves from _____ brother that walketh _____.” Do you do this with consistency? _____
16. Share Other’s Burdens Paul said: (Eph 4:28) “Let him _____, working with _____ the thing which is _____, that he may have to _____ to _____ that _____.” (Gal 6:2) “Bear ye one another’s burdens, and so _____ the _____ of _____.” Do you only give token gifts to friends and family as expected by cultural tradition, or continuously seek to (Titus 3:14) “learn to _____ good works for _____ uses”? _____
